C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

2. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHA's are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

A Substantial Deviation is a decision made by the Board of Commissioners to change the PHA's mission statement, goals, or objectives identified in the 5-Year Plan. It is also when goals or objectives are changed that affect the residents or have a significant impact to the PHA's financial situation.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

A significant Amendment or Modification is a change in PHA plans or policies that require formal approval by the Board of Commissioners.

In an effort to keep the residents informed of upcoming events, a monthly newsletter is hand-delivered to each resident every month. This newsletter also reminds them of seasonal procedures found in the Admissions and Occupancy Policy, such as when to move their cars so the snow can be removed effectively from the parking lots.

Posters are displayed announcing guest speakers (police officers, fire chief, county nurse, Senior Citizens Coordinator, etc.) who have been invited to our meetings with the residents.

The Director has always had and continues to maintain, an open door policy to all residents. Both the Director and maintenance personnel are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In addition, each resident has been provided a telephone listing (and instructions) for every conceivable emergency.
